

TENNESSEE
WINGS OF LIBERTY
MUSEUM

07.26.2024

Completed Work

Contracts

- All sub-contractors involved with the first early release package have executed contracts and are being scheduled to begin work

Grading

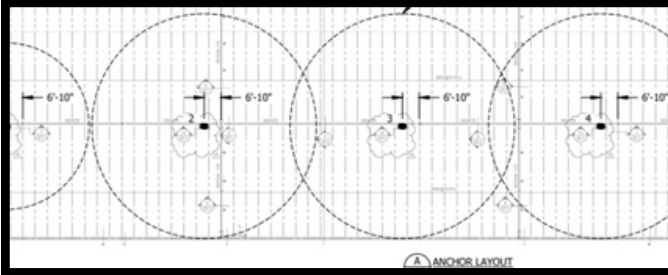

- The grading sub-contractor has completed their scope of work
- The building ready pad is complete and ready for layout and footing excavation

Design

- The Phase 2A (Atrium) drawings are complete and have been submitted for review by the Directorate of Public Works

Current Work

- The submittal processes has begun for the first early release package
- The construction manager has begun issuing requests for information (RFI's) to the architect and design team.

- The construction gate and fencing is being installed for contractor access from highway 41-A

- Onsite coordination continues to discuss construction logistics and processes

Upcoming Work

July

Constuction Entrance Open

July

Phase 2A Review

August

Building Pad Installation

